[1] Variable and Fixed APR as of January 1, 2010. Rate adjusts quarterly and equals Prime Rate for previous month plus 2.00% to 10.00% depending on credit worthiness. [2] The statement closing date is the 15th of each month and the payment due date is the 12th of each month. Therefore, the number of days between your statement closing date and your payment due date (the grace period) may vary from one billing cycle to another. [3] Late fees are assessed if your account is more than 15 days late.

SF Fire Credit Union makes it quick and easy for you to transfer balances from higher interest retail or bank credit cards. Just list the institution(s) from which you wish SF Fire Credit Union to transfer the balance(s) and the amount(s) to pay. Balances will be transferred to your SF Fire Credit Union VISA Card if approved. You will receive your Cardholder Agreement and Disclosure within approximately 5 business days. Your balance transfers will be processed approximately 15 business days after we mail you your Cardholder Agreement and Disclosure. If, after you review your Cardholder Agreement and Disclosure, you object to any term, please notify us to close your account and cancel your balance transfer requests and you will have no obligations to us. If you want to close other credit cards, you must notify the issuers. You should continue to at least make your minimum payments until the card issuer(s) notify you that your balances have been paid.
